Raising a concern/complaint

If a candidate (or parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification, William Henry Smith School & 6th Form encourages an informal resolution in the first instance.

This can be undertaken by:

- raising the concern or complaint in person, by telephone or in writing to the head of centre

If a concern or complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

All documentation relating to the submission of a formal complaint is available from, and should be returned to:

- Head of Centre

Formal complaints will be logged and acknowledged within:

- 10 working days

To make a formal complaint, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- submit a written complaint in writing or email to Head of Centre

How a formal complaint is investigated

The head of centre will further investigate or appoint a member of the senior leadership team (who is not involved in the grounds for complaint and has no personal interest in the outcome) to investigate the complaint and report on the findings and conclusion.

The findings and conclusion of any investigation will be provided to the complainant within:

- 10 working days

Internal appeals procedure

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

To submit an appeal, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- submit the appeal in writing/email

Appeals will be logged and acknowledged within:

- 10 working days

The appeal will be referred to:

- Chair of Governors

It will be the responsibility of Chair of Governors to inform the appellant of the final conclusion in accordance with the internal appeals procedure.
